

The median published network leaves 10.7% of its edges undirected — but 6 of 39 are fully compelled and have nothing to orient

39 of 40 networks; excluded: M-bias (an ADMG with bidirected edges, not a DAG, so it has no CPDAG and no undirected fraction to report)